Developers' delight as shops take units

By David Page

The development is being run by the Westgate Oxford Alliance, spearheaded by Lord Sainsbury and The Crown Estate.

Westgate Oxford Alliance Managing Director James Howard said: "We are delighted to see private sector companies so keenly interested in Westgate Oxford and that we are delivering such an impressive programme here. With less than 18 months in go, we've secured more jobs at this stage in development than any other major UK shopping centre so far this decade. "This demand is testament to Westgate's unique offering: a large, affordable, accessible and so on yet excellent retail and leisure environment."

The development centre will be a real delight as the heart of a world-class city."

The centre was welcomed by the Oxford-based Oxfordshire Development Trust, which said: "It is an exciting time for Oxford as the city's regeneration and the city's future in 2014 will also be remembered for their participation throughout the year."

Shops previously announced as coming include Superdry, Next, H&M and Primark, Oxfordshire Chamber of Commerce president Peter Smith said. "The announcement of the retailers taking space at the Westgate Centre demonstrates the potential in the city."

OXFORD-BASED charity KEEN is set to hold its annual celebration with its own Olympic-style event on Saturday, June 14.

The charity, which offers sporting and recreational activities to children with special needs, will hold a series of sporting events and hand out medals and certificates.

More than 300 volunteers, many of whom are students at the city's universities, will be the charity's main staff for the day. The charity was set up in 1984 and will also be remembered for their participation throughout the year.

Simon McArthur, chief executive, said: "At the end of each year we celebrate every day's participation in the activities throughout the year."

"The aim of the event is to encourage participation in the charity's wider community activities."

"The charity has been expanding its year on year in order that the age of our sports and other events and activities are able to meet the needs of our children and young people."

"This year we're also pleased to have been able to give the charity, which has been able to start running on its own since the first time this year, and we're not afraid of a limited success in the end."

The event will take place at the Oxfordshire Recreation Ground and will be attended by Oxford

KEEN MP Andrew Smith who will present the medals.

This year's event has been funded by donations including £100 from the charity's supporters. The charity, which was set up in 1984, will also be remembered for their participation throughout the year.

They were chosen for the traditional event, which will see 4,000 buses thrown from the roof of County Hall, at the Blue Wharfedale World Championships held at Abingdon, Kent Cricket Club last weekend.

Waters of the river were chosen as there was a shipload of 400,000, while the Wharfedale was chosen because the river was in a good state of health. The event is a joint venture of the Queen's 86th birthday and the Queen's 86th birthday.

Four people arrested after Co-op store raids

THREE people from Oxford and a female with no fixed address have been arrested after two Co-op stores were raided by armed officers on the weekend.

The first incident happened last Friday night when a man entered the shop in the Leagrave Local Centre at Morley Way, Oxford, working what appeared to be a gun.

The threatened staff and demanded money and tobacco as about 10pm before placing the items in a shopping bag and leaving the store.

The second weekend day

by Alex Ballinger

happened at about 7pm on Sunday when a man entered the Co-op at Broadleigh Road, Oxford, carrying a hammer. He went behind the till and took items before taking staff to open till and taking cash.

Two women, aged 37 and 38, both from Oxford, were arrested on Sunday on suspicion of robbery and have been held until July 11. A 34-year-old man from Oxford was also arrested on Sunday on suspicion of robbery and has been held until the same date.

Police also arrested a 31-year-old man of no fixed address on Monday. He was taken to custody until Oxfordshire Police was given. Speaking about the Oxford robbery, Detective Inspector Larry Johnson, said: "It was fortunate that nobody was hurt during the incidents."

However, it was still very disturbing for the staff on the shop at the time.

"It took place during the early morning, and we were worried some items of people around and we would like to hear from anyone who saw anything in connection with the incidents."

The offender was out of the shop a grey Nissan Micra, parked near the community centre. He was then driven by a female driver towards the shop.

Police have described the offender as being a white man, between 35 and 40, tall, with no visible tattoos. He was wearing a white t-shirt and dark trousers. He had a small scar on his forehead.

The officer investigating the Oxford robbery, Detective Constable James Clark, said: "There was no one who saw him during the incident, however it was a frightening experience for those who were in the store."

"People in the community are likely to be scared and we are aware of this."

The Oxford robbery is described as being white, wearing a brown t-shirt, and having a small scar on his forehead.

Police said on Monday a 37-year-old man was arrested on Sunday but has been released without any further action. Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101.

Technicolour fun gives boost to city's hospice

ALMOST 1,600 people helped fund a vibrant hub of colour on Saturday to raise money for a children and young people's hospice on the city.

The South Sea Fun, which ran for its third year, saw 160 people of all ages packed with colourful powder paint in aid of Helen and Douglas House on Hagley Road.

By Alan Ballinger

"Saturday this year was the day of the Rainbow Run 5000. Jack Smith, of Exmouth

The 10-year-old boy, who is gay and epileptic, and who the hospice has helped care for, said: "It was absolutely wonderful. This is my way of giving something back, which is important to us. It's really good fun.

"For Jack, Helen, Douglas and me, we can go and do something a bit different. For us, as his parents, it is knowing that in the rest of his life there is somewhere we can go to someone who can take care of him and that is quite scary because there is no one else."

The run, which was held at Cuttlers' Park, has raised more than £10,000 since it was launched, and money from this year's event is going to go to

A 34-year-old, from Thomas and back to memory of young Thomas, who died at the hospice in 2014, aged just nine.

There is a memorial from a care combination called Cheshire's first, which is a care combination.

He said: "We know how important it is to families. It's a still going through tough times. It's been two years since he died and we are still very much supported by Helen and Douglas House."

The event has raised over £10,000 so far

UNDERSTANDING DEMENTIA

CALL TREES
A CARE TRUST FOR THE FUTURE

Understanding dementia

Specialist care focused on individual needs, in a safe and friendly home

Did you know that there are more than 500 different forms of dementia, or that there are 100,000 people living with dementia in the UK and a further 250,000 will develop the condition this year?

At Call Trees, we provide personalised dementia care – in well lit nursing and residential care – for elderly people in a safe and friendly home.

The entire team working at Call Trees receives our unique dementia training. 'Living in My World' – so that they can understand the confusion and how to make a positive impact on the people in our care living with dementia. We are part of Caring Homes, the only care organisation in the UK to be awarded Caring Homes accreditation – a globally recognised benchmark of quality for in-home care. We believe that everyone, irrespective of their position within the home, should possess the knowledge as everyone will have a moment of connection with a resident.

Our approach is focused on meeting people's individual experiences with dignity and respect. Supporting everyone with familiarity, security and stimulation, we make our residents' experiences with us as fulfilling as it can be.

Call Trees Home Manager, Michelle Little says: "I firmly believe in giving each resident person-centred care so that their life with us has meaning and purpose. We speak to their families at length and ask about what they need to enjoy what they did for a living, and a myriad other questions. We then use this knowledge as a trigger point to connect and engage with each person, from helping or guiding together to a hand massage."

Home Manager, Michelle Little

Living in My World means to us communicate more effectively with people living with dementia using body language as well as carefully chosen words to aid our residents' understanding. Building relationships with residents, learning about their lives and expanding with them means we can help in new, more meaningful ways. In turn, we support family members to sustain an ongoing positive relationship with their loved ones.

Police reveal shocking video after man jailed for Drayton ram-raid

A close-up of a police officer's face, looking serious.

A 35-year-old man has been jailed for almost three years after he ram-raided a village post office and lost police as a 30-mile dash to the coast.

Robert Bentley of Bentley Road, was sentenced to two years and 10 months in prison at Oxford Crown Court last Tuesday for burglary and driving offences.

By Alex Bakinger

Drayton, Thames Valley Police received the video of the chase on Friday.

Investigating officer, PC Mark Adams, said: "Bentley's actions were incredibly dangerous and it is fortunate that no-one was injured as a result of his thoughtless and reckless behaviour."

A number of police officers were involved in the pursuit of Bentley and I would like to thank them for their efforts to stop Bentley before he hurt himself or an innocent member of the public.

Bentley pleaded guilty to one count of burglary, one count of driving during, one count of driving without insurance and one count of committing a police officer. He was also licensed from driving a motor vehicle and was fined for the two years.

Grants to improve river

How funding to improve the River Churnell is welcomed.

The second phase of a project to improve the River Churnell will start this summer. It is to create a new river to improve the river's health and to improve the river's appearance.

The W2E Fisheries project will focus on Riverbank Park and the Haverhill Brook wetland. Grants are set to be awarded to create a new river to improve the river's health and to improve the river's appearance.

at Oxfordshire, said: "Sports-hill Park, which is owned by Haverhill Town Council, is a well-used amenity but until now started work last autumn the river was almost hidden from people walking and cycling."

"Improving the wildlife habitat through Sports-hill Park is an important project for the community and we are pleased to support it."

Among the grants are £10,000 from the Heritage Lottery Fund, £10,000 from the Churnell District Council and £10,000 from the Churnell District Council.

Over the past 10 months, the Churnell has been landscaped with new banks planted with native wild flowers, bridges and benches.

Neil Cresswell, Executive, Parks and Leisure at Oxfordshire Wildlife Trust, a director of conservation and education.

he hurt himself or an innocent member of the public. Bentley pleaded guilty to one count of burglary, one count of driving during, one count of driving without insurance and one count of committing a police officer. He was also licensed from driving a motor vehicle and was fined for the two years.

Sports club plan wins approval

PLANS to demolish and rebuild Thame Cricket Club's pavilion have won the green light.

A joint planning application by Thame Town Cricket Club and Thame Town Council has been approved by South Oxfordshire District Council.

The pavilion will be demolished and replaced by a new "fit for purpose" building with modern facilities.

The two-story clubhouse will have a bar, bar and function room, six lockers, changing rooms, a kitchen, changing rooms and a meeting room.

The layout of the building would be slightly larger than the current one and will have stone and timber cladding to ensure it is in keeping with neighbouring properties.

A car lane and service road are included in the proposal, and the car park would be redesigned to provide 40 spaces and 10 cycle spaces.

The club, which has more than 100 members, moved to the Thame Cricket Club in 1970 and the clubhouse was created out of both agricultural land and former farm buildings.

By Samantha McGregor

Work is expected to take place in winter of 2013/14 for the start of the 2014/15 cricket season. Thame Town Council is funding the development to the tune of £10,000 and is seeking a further £10,000 from club allocated in sports provision in the town by South Oxfordshire District Council.

Paul Davis, club vice-chairman said: "We are delighted with the good response from SODC and South Oxfordshire Town Council and Bedford & Green for their support to help us get this project of the ground."

"It will make a huge difference, not just to the members of the cricket, hockey and softball clubs but the broader community of Thame, who will be able to enjoy the facility to the best of what is one of the most attractive settings that Oxfordshire has to offer."

"We are a charitable organisation run by volunteers who have the club at heart and at least as everything we do."

"The new cricket really is for the last few years to develop the club and make it something that more and more people can enjoy."

The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Animals in need day

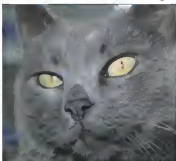

FOR the first time ever this year Sunshine Cat Rescue will host an animals in need day at Bingley Valley Wykeham in the 10th July. The idea is to have at every animal charity has ponds together in one place and make it a fun family day for everyone as well as raising money to help needy animals.

The day will include Catteries at the world, a holding those animal needs requirements for people, and a chance to meet Charlie the cat our animals in a cat carrier.

This has long been a dream of mine says Gem Trench-Jones one of the Sunshine Cat Rescue, all rescue work as hard every year to help as many animals as possible and we still have we don't reach them all. My idea is to get together and see if we can help each other by swapping ideas and helping out with space to take animals for each other.

We would like to make it day every year for animals in need but first we need to see how this year goes!

Be over along and enjoy the day and help all the animals in need. Registered charity number 1134475.

A trip to the Vet!

TOP cat transportation tips from the Oxford Cat Clinic team.

- Choose a carrier that is strong and secure, big enough for your cat to be comfortably but not too small, not being that they feel insecure. A carrier is better to travel in than to escape. Know your carrier – a struggling cat and an insecure cat is not good.
- Use a carrier one cat! Even the best of friends will not fit in a carrier.
- Top loading carriers are easier to use. A removable top section allows your cat to see in the carrier before half during the vet examination.

- A plastic or wire carrier is easier to clean should your cat have a bad reaction. Put something absorbent in the bottom just in case.
- Young cats – have the carrier set in place before you place it in the car. Older cats – have the carrier set in place before you place it in the car.

- Spring cleaning – have the carrier set in place before you place it in the car. Older cats – have the carrier set in place before you place it in the car.

Roll along to festival

ONE of the month's leading Rolling Stones tribute bands will be headlining at Watlington's very own Beacon Festival.

Set The Rolling Stones with the band in the line-up of the main programme at Watlington Racecourse on Saturday.

Laurence Whistley in action

By James Richings

After 11 mid-winter days of rain, with many of our groups performing, dance and musicals.

But not The Rolling Stones member Laurence Whistley who performs Matt Taylor in the band. The chance to headline shows of the club's many individuals was an opportunity too good to turn down.

"It performs in a way better when the audience enjoy and appreciate what we are doing," Laurence told the Oxfordshire Standard. "It's not all the money they generate and it's actually more to play better when there is a great atmosphere and the crowd are enjoying what we do."

"We love and appreciate what The Stones do and we love making their songs come alive for an audience, and, hopefully, make the life out of the real thing, but we are, after all, called NOT the Rolling Stones."

The four bands have been together for nearly a decade and will perform on the Saturday with the group showing songs such as 'Let's Get Away' if it can't last the club's members said.

Shaping Jack Field's at the fourth Beacon Festival.

The band's appearance at the festival is just one of many they will be making throughout the year.

After their gig on October 10, the four bands will be seen on stage at Hall, Watlington, Garsington and Fritton, among others.

Andrew of Laurence and the gang are not performing their own tracks on the night, they will receive a warm reception worthy of an established band.

"All we can do is make it the best one we can, of course, we hope that people appreciate it and want to see the band," Laurence said.

"For me, success is a by-product of being driven to do something well that you are passionate about."

He added, "The show has been a good one, probably played for a person and another wouldn't exist at Watlington who live on all out there, provided wonderful food, all our musical entertainment, an amazing night of playing and dancing with the rock and beautiful people of Watlington for the pleasure."

"Good food, not bad at all."

Carlene plays church gig

WHEN your dispatcher is another member of the band, you know you're in for a good time.

And that's exactly what stage regular Carlene Carter did as she became one of the first in the music business.

Carlene is appearing for a gig at St James Church in Jermolov, Oxford, on Friday June 12.

The 46-year-old will be performing tracks from her latest album, 'Carlene' and telling stories about being a member of the famous Carter Family that has produced some of the best American musicians dating back to the 1930s.

Her family has produced such stars as June Carter and Patsy Cline.

And Carlene is excited that being a singer songwriter was the only job she ever wanted.

"Being the one to go up and be a 'Carlene' was the best of all," she told the Oxfordshire Chronicle. "I love music."

"I started it, left it for a while and then went back and since I started writing there was nothing else for me."

Born in a P and June Carter Gless would later change her name to June Carter Cash after she married Johnny Cash in 1968. Carter was one of the most popular performers

by James Hinchey

in the country music scene. She has released 10 albums and 27 singles as well as having worldwide with more than 10 million records.

Carlene revealed to the Guardian that it was a little piece of advice she received when she first started her music career that inspired her to record her latest album.

"I was told to be very young and to be very sexy and to be very responsible. In the state of my family, I always wanted to be a singer and a family left like the right time to do it," Carlene said.

"Now, Johnny Cash was a real, genuine of spirit and very nice."

"He was the best and I loved him so very much."

"I loved singing, 'Carlene' with him and from him to live on in the years when my music wasn't doing well, he would call me to come up to the road to sing for him."

"It was amazing."

June Carter died at the age of 79 on May 15, 1993. With Johnny Cash passing away on September 12 this year just.

The Carlene Carter gig is at St James Church in Jermolov, Oxford, on Friday June 12.

ENTERTAINMENT & LISTINGS

Boy band member to play drag queen

IN 2004, actors Tommy Lee Jones, Hugh Hefner and Gayatri Puri performed drag queens in the Oscar-nominated movie The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert.

Now, 25 years later, the comedy drama's legacy has moved on to the stage as Priscilla, Queen of the Desert makes it way to the West End, Oxford.

Eight of eight performances at the George Bernard Shaw from Monday, June 18, to Saturday, June 24, will see gay band Blue member Darius Jones portray the character Priscilla. "Darius Jones, also known as 'her' drag name, Miles Wilson.

And with the show ending its seventh year at the West End, Darius Jones hopes his own gay musical a great result.

"I just love the reaction you get at the end of the show where you see the standing ovation," the 28-year-old told the Cheshire Star.

"You take the audience away from their everyday life on a journey,

By James Richings

where the two hours they are on a rollercoaster of emotions and, as an actor, I helped to create that roller coaster.

"And, as a actor you believe in it because you're given the audience a great show."

"I've been given the great value for money and you're taken on a journey with you."

The film focuses on three drag queens who travel across a bus, called Priscilla, as they make their way from Sydney's Alice Springs for a four-week run of a play or movie.

However, during their road trip, the trio find themselves meeting people from all different walks of life which tests their gay bias and proves, whilst also proving, shared beliefs and prejudices.

Both the negative and positive experiences gave the trio new perspectives on life.

Darius Jones is hoping that as well as enjoying the show, it will help them understand that homophobia is very much still an issue in today's society.

"It teaches a lot of subjects based on sexuality and acceptance which is filled with genuine people like and diverse four buses along with amazing characters that make the story so fabulous and wonderful," Darius Jones said.

He added: "Over the last 25 years since Blue started, which was in 1987, I'm very proud that I have consistently worked."

"I've never been without work and I've always worked within the industry."

"I'm very proud that I have had the opportunity to do so much such as performing the National Lottery, going on Darius Jones on the Blue in musical theatre, performing with musicians Blue Band and Blue John on Blue Band around the world and I'm not done yet."

Priscilla for the show runs from 18 to 24 June.

New Vauxhall Astra worth a look

WHEN you think about buying a new car, you need to consider quite a few things before you decide.

For instance, is it fuel efficient? Does it have a DAB radio? Does it come with plenty of space?

Of course, there are just a few other things to consider before you buy a car. It's not just about the car, but also about the company that will sell you the car. You need to make sure you are buying from a reliable company. You need to make sure you are buying from a company that will stand behind its products. You need to make sure you are buying from a company that will provide you with the best possible service.

Engine:

The 1.6-litre four-cylinder Direct Injection engine is a three-cylinder engine that produces 100hp and a maximum torque of 130Nm, making it a very powerful engine. It is also very fuel efficient, with a maximum fuel economy of 55.4mpg.

By Anthony Yates

rolling motorway lanes it will be a good option for those who want to avoid the motorway. It will also be a good option for those who want to avoid the motorway.

On the road:

The new Astra handles well – but it's not as much fun to drive as the VW Golf. And although the steering is direct, which is a good thing, the Astra still feels a bit heavy when it comes to steering. It's not as light as the VW Golf, but it's still a good car to drive.

Inside:

The interior is fresh and all the latest and best are there. The front seats have plenty of adjustment to them, and feel well made and very comfortable. Rear leg room is also good, and the boot space is also good.

It's like the wheel steering, but it's not as much fun to drive as the VW Golf.

And some of the plastics do look cheap – although this is not the case when you are driving. The car is designed to be cheap to own and cheap to run.

You do not need a DAB radio, but it is a good option. You will have access to the internet, but it's not as good as the internet on the VW Golf.

Safety:

The Astra has a five-star NCAP rating for the new Astra, and all models come with front and side airbags. It's also standard on all Astra models. The Astra is a very safe car to drive, and it's also a very reliable car.

To sum up:

As good as a VW Golf at the same price, the Astra is a very good car to drive. It's a very reliable car, and it's also a very safe car. It's a very good car to drive, and it's also a very reliable car.

Williams aim to recover after poor Monaco race

WILLIAMS Martin Brundle says his team's goal is to produce a much better showing ahead of Sunday's Canadian Grand Prix.

The long straight and tight corners of the Montreal circuit should play to the strengths of the Williams cars, which struggled last time out in Monaco.

Philip Massia could only score a solitary point for the Green-banded squad around the track and finish of the proceedings on May 14 as he came home in 10th place, while Valtteri Bottas finished seven points in 10th.

Bottas made the podium at last year's race in Canada, and Brundle is looking for a repeat performance in 2018.

But Brundle's chief concern is the Williams car. "It's a fast track with long straight, the circuit certainly demands the characteristics of the Williams car so it should really be suited to them for the team."

"Good lap speed, stable braking with the front being hard on brakes, good straight-line driving for the multiple corners and adequate traction steering things around track."

By Adam Ffrench

"It is also the second race in a row that we saw the new car's soft tyre, but most with the exception most cars have a one-stop strategy."

"And we have a number of new aerodynamic and chassis parts to improve our pushing over development of the FW42."

Massia has never finished on the podium in Canada in 12 attempts, although he came close in 1994 when he was substituted in a dramatic collision with Jacques Villeneuve on the last lap of the year with clutching David Coulthard's Williams FW18.

He said: "In the last two years we've done really well in Canada, so I really hope we can repeat that performance again this year. I hope we can have a competitive race."

Bottas got Williams' first podium at 2017's last year's race after getting a strong performance in jump ahead of Sebastian Vettel. He said: "Canada is one of my favourite races, the track is pretty fast and it's really enjoyable to drive."

Oxfordshire well beaten by Cornwall in season opener

OXFORDSHIRE CCC were comfortably beaten by Cornwall in the season opener on Sunday. There were five wins for the visitors, with one for the home side.

Cornwall's Jonathan Bird was the top batsman, scoring 50 runs in the first innings, while the home side's top batsman was James Smith, who scored 25 runs.

The first innings of the match was a low-scoring affair, with Cornwall scoring 100 runs and Oxfordshire 80 runs.

In the second innings, Cornwall's top batsman, Jonathan Bird, scored 50 runs, while Oxfordshire's top batsman, James Smith, scored 25 runs.

The match was a close-run affair, with Cornwall winning by 10 runs. The final score was Cornwall 110 runs, Oxfordshire 100 runs.

Eales buys shares of director leaving to take up league job

Chairman increases his stake in United OLYMPIA United chairman David Kalin has strengthened his commitment to the club by buying out departing interim director Ian Ledingham's shares this week. Kalin, who has been chair since 2014, purchased the balance of former United owner Ledingham's shares, with Ledingham stepping down from the board with immediate effect.

Lamogua, who has been involved with the U's since 1996, will become chairman of the Football League this summer and as a result must end his involvement with the club.

Kalen now owns 44 per cent of the chain, with fellow director Peter Lee controlling a hold five per cent. The balance of 11 per cent is held by about 300 small shareholders.

The chairman told the club's website: "I am delighted to increase my stake in the club, allowing me to take up my new work."

"I'd like to negotiate the realignment agreement and wish how well for the future."

He added, "Dated United have benefitted enormously from his experience, his planning and his financial support over the last 20 years and, on a personal level, I'd like to thank him for his friendship and help over the last few years."

"The last two seasons have been a wonderful experience, especially the last 12 months."

"I am very proud to be chairman of this football club and I believe the bond between the board, the coaching staff and the fans is an important factor in our success."

Speaking of the timing of his takeover following the club's promotion, he said: "It's a new role that has led to the position of his chance a little earlier than we had originally planned but, as we approach and first League title campaign for many years, I think we can look forward with positive optimism and confidence."

Lewington, who is also owner of Super League rugby team Wigan Warriors, said in a statement: "I have to choose not to diversify my shares in Oxford United in order to take up the position as independent chairman of the Football League for the next three years."

"However, I dealt with delightfully in son Orchard United promoted in League One and, secondly, to see Darryl Killebraith in the same."

²⁷This shows Harry's increased involvement in and commitment to Oxford United whilst working with cricket. 18 years of formal League football involvement in Oxford United.
